

Students from Department of Building, NUS, Win “Merit Award” at BCA-SIA-SGBC International Tropical Architecture Design Competition 2014 for Institutes of Higher Learning

“The Mosaic”, submitted by students from Department of Building, NUS: Ang Jie Min (MSc [BPS]), Ang Yu Qian (BSc [PFM] ‘13; MSc [Building]), Koe Choon Wei (BSc [PFM] Year 4), and Lee Zhe Min (BSc [PFM] Year3), was awarded the “Merit Award” at the International Green Building Conference award presentation ceremony on 1 September 2014.

The "International Tropical Architecture Design Competition" is in its fourth run this year. The aim of the competition is to demonstrate the essentials and key constituents of a green home in metropolitan cities such as Bangkok, Jakarta, Manila and Singapore. 70 entries for the theme “Our urban green home” were received from various tertiary institutions across 13 countries. The entries by students from Australia, Indonesia and Germany emerged as the top three.

For more details: http://www.bca.gov.sg/newsroom/others/pr01092014_SGBWA.pdf